

LAST PROFESSOR'S WIFE COLLAPSES IN SEARCH FOR GIBSON

Physician Sent by Father Will Take Her to Kentucky—No
Trace of Husband.

Under the perplexing mystery of the disappearance of Prof. Benjamin Chatham Gibson from his apartments in this city nine days ago, his young wife has suffered a mental breakdown so that at the instance of her father, Simon Mulligan of Owensboro, Ky., Dr. S. S. Watkins of that city has come here to take charge of Mrs. Gibson and return with her to her parent's home.

The only explanation for Prof. Gibson's disappearance that could be offered was given by Prof. Fitzgerald, under whom he had been studying at Columbia for a degree of bachelor of science in education. Prof. Fitzgerald said Prof. Gibson had been a hard student and had crowded the period of study to obtain the degree into half the time usually allowed.

He left his home at No. 480 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street saying he meant to take a walk. He did not return that night, but was seen the next day on the steps of the college. Prof. Fitzgerald thinks over-study brought on aphasia and that Gibson in wandering somewhere unable to recall anything about himself.

His domestic life was entirely happy and money that he deposited in banks in Manhattan has remained untouched. He only had a few dollars with him when he left home.

Hospitals, the morgue and many other places have been searched and searched by Columbia students and private detectives. Until her complete mental breakdown his wife conducted a daily personal hunt.

Home to Death Before Train.—Robert Reeling, five, of No. 70 Berlin street, Newark, N. J., ran in front of a two-car train at Avenue L and Madison street, Newark, yesterday and was killed. The motorist, John Klaman, of No. 35 Whitney street, and his crew were arrested, but were paroled.

SLAYER DIES IN CHAIN.

Partial Electrocuting After Twenty-nine Months in Death House.

OSWEGO, N. Y., June 2.—Gregorio Pattioli died in the electric chair just before 8 o'clock this morning for a murder committed a few miles back in the country thirty months ago.

It was only forty days from the murder until he was in the death house, but it was only a few days ago that the last appeal was made to Gov. Sulzer, who declined to interfere.

Pattioli, who was one of the youngest men ever put to death in the chair, was George Voss at Sherman Park, Pennsylvania, Westchester County, on Dec. 24, 1910, and was convicted before Justice Tompkins at White Plains on Jan. 21, 1911.

DEATH THREATS TO JEW.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 2.—A detachment of 20 Russian frontier guards was sent to-day to the district of Kalim, in Russian Poland, owing to the receipt of despatches declaring that the Jewish inhabitants of the villages there, as well as the Christians having relations with them, had anonymous letters threatening them all with death unless they immediately left the vicinity.

HABS 4 SAFE CRACKERS.

BOSTON, June 2.—Four boys, the oldest only ten years of age, were arrested last night trying to break into a safe in the Norfolk Oyster Company's office in Atlantic avenue. The combination dial on the safe had been removed, but the door had not been opened.

The tap, tap, tap of a hammer on steel attracted the attention of a policeman, who upon looking into the office saw the boys crouching before the safe. He succeeded in capturing all of them. They were taken to police headquarters, and then sent home in the custody of their parents, who live in the Italian quarter.
